Keep travel and expenses on budget and in policy.

Customize smart controls.

Set it and forget it (if you want). Brex auto-enforces your travel expense policy anywhere your team travels. Plus, get multi-currency support, and global and local reimbursements.

Get a smart assistant for travel.

Free your finance and travel teams from policy questions. With AI and travel, you can give every employee their own virtual assistant to get travel answers in real time.

Automate receipts and reconciliation.

Brex automatically adds receipts and pre-populates memos, categories, and other expense fields. No more manual work to reconcile expenses and close the books.

Manage group events of any size.

Invite unlimited attendees to book travel for group events using a shared spend limit, including external guests. Track bookings and monitor travelers to uphold your duty of care.

“Our employees can book corporate travel in a couple of clicks and easily access their itinerary on their calendars. The Brex app puts cards, travel, and expenses at your fingertips, so employees can manage everything in one place.”
